

KARINE AUBRY

Karine Aubry is Dailymotion's Chief People Officer. Her mission is to push Dailymotion's global vision forward by building the best and most inclusive employee experience. Since 2018, Karine has successfully streamlined HR processes globally, implemented performance management processes, and built leadership programs for managers. She is based in Paris but likes to meet and mingle with teams based in other cities in France and abroad.

Karine began her career in management consulting before supporting French tech companies' international growth as an international HR business partner. She joined Dailymotion in 2018.

When Karine is not studying diversity & inclusion online, she's assembling her latest Lego set.

She is a graduate of Kedge Business School in Bordeaux.
